INTERNSHIPS

SPRING 2020
A Letter from the Internships co-chairs

Greetings,

On behalf of the APPLES Service-Learning program and the Carolina Center for Public Service, we extend our deepest gratitude to you for your shared interest in public service and commitment to community engagement.

This packet details all of the available APPLES internship positions for Spring 2020. The organizations included cover a spectrum of professional development opportunities offered to Carolina students, including communications, marketing, event planning, fundraising, program development and teaching. Each APPLES internship position offers students unique, developmental experiences in areas of environmental education, psychology, public policy, journalism, advertising, business, entrepreneurialism and many more.

All of the internship opportunities are designed and have been selected so that students gain professional experience, while simultaneously continuing their education over the spring semester. Interns agree to complete 150 hours of work, receive a $1,200 stipend and enroll in a three-credit-hour service-learning course in the Spring through UNC’s School of Social Work.

As former interns, we can personally attest to the power of APPLES program. Through sustained partnerships, APPLES and its community organizations have created mutually beneficial relationships that enhance student learning and community-partner success. While students receive stipends and course credit, their contributions assist community partners with specialized projects. Together, this dynamic relationship creates an invaluable experience that is hard to replicate.

We encourage you to use this packet as a resource — a survey of all of your options. Information includes start and end dates, position descriptions and organization overviews. Should you have additional questions, be sure to reference the APPLES website or contact mailto:apples@unc.edu.

Applications are due Monday, Oct. 7th.

Thank you for your interest in APPLES Service-Learning Internships and your commitment to public service and the community. We wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely,

Zoie Albrecht ‘20
