Service-Learning

INTERNSHIPS

SPRING 2023

A Letter from the Internships co-chairs

Greetings,

On behalf of the APPLES Service-Learning program and the Carolina Center for Public Service, we extend our deepest gratitude to you for your shared interest in public service and commitment to community engagement, especially amidst this pandemic.

This packet details all of the available APPLES internship positions for Spring 2023. The organizations cover a spectrum of professional development opportunities offered to UNC-CH students, including communications, marketing, event planning, fundraising, program development and teaching. Each APPLES internship position offers students one-of-a-kind, developmental experiences in areas of education, public policy, journalism, public relations, advertising, business, psychology, sociology and many more.

All of the internship opportunities are designed for students to gain professional experience, while simultaneously continuing their education during the spring semester. APPLES interns agree to complete up to 150 hours of work, receive a $1,650 stipend, and enroll in a three-credit hour service-learning course in the Spring semester through UNC's School of Social Work that counts toward the Experiential Education (EE) general education requirement.

As former interns, we can personally attest to the power of the APPLES internship program. Through sustained partnerships, APPLES and its community organizations provide mutually beneficial relationships that enhance both student learning and community partner success. While students receive a stipend and course credit, their contributions assist with projects that uphold the mission and values of the community partners. Together, this dynamic relationship creates a unique and impactful internship experience.

We encourage you to use this packet as a resource — a survey of all of your options. Information about each internship site and the respective position description is detailed in this packet. Should you have additional questions, be sure to reference the APPLES website or contact APPLES.

Applications are due Thursday, October 6, 2022.

Thank you for your interest in APPLES Service-Learning Internships and your commitment to public service and the community. We wish you the best of luck. Stay well.

Sincerely,

Riley Harper '25

Carolina Friends School Extended Learning & Summer Programs— Extended Learning Assistant Durham, North Carolina

Number of intern positions: 1

Dates (to be confirmed once intern is selected): 1/11/23 – 4/29/23

Transportation: Car needed

Website: <https://www.cfsnc.org/cfs-education/extended-learning/summer-programs>

Organization description: Carolina Friends School is a vibrant and inclusive learning community empowering students to think critically, creatively, and independently. We foster active exploration and quiet reflection, individual endeavor and collaborative engagement. Inspired by Quaker values — pursuit of truth, respect for all, peaceful resolution of conflict, simplicity, the call to service — we teach our children that it is possible to change the world. Extended Learning @ CFS is innovation hub for student, adult, and family enrichment and encompasses existing Extended Day (AfterHours) offerings and Summer Programs. CFS's 2019 Summer Programs will offer a range of opportunities for students age 4-18 for nine weeks, likely June 17 through August 16 (including July 4th). We aspire to provide programs that spark intellectual curiosity, encourage playful exploration, and help build character. At heart, this is a place of joy!

Internship details: The Intern will work collaboratively with CFS' Director of Extended Learning Anthony L. Clay and Extended Learning Coordinator Tracy Hayes to support after school, enrichment, and summer programming at Carolina Friends School. Areas of opportunity, depending on individual strengths and interests, might include school program development and scheduling, working with students and parents, database and website work, photography, marketing/communications, and lots of problem-solving. A sense of humor, playfulness, and energy are expectations, and we welcome contributions to an entrepreneurial, innovation-minded vision. Just 15 minutes from UNC, CFS has 126 acres of woodlands, pasture, and stream--not a bad work environment! We can be flexible in scheduling the 150 hours to meet a student's availability each week and across weeks.

Relevant coursework and skills: Directly relevant majors include (but are in no way limited to) education, business administration, communications/marketing, sociology, and human development and family studies. Students studying psychology, recreation and leisure studies, english, public policy, dramatic arts, cultural studies, social and economic justice, media and journalism, or religious studies will likely also have relevant skills. Essentially, we'd love an individual who enjoys working with children and can contribute to the daily operations of this good-sized program, serving close to 900 students and 90 paid and volunteer staff (from instructors to Counselors-In-Training) in Summer Programs plus youth and adult students and also staff in school-year programs.

Carolina Meadows – Music & Memory Assistant

Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Number of intern positions: 1

Dates (to be confirmed once intern is selected): 1/16/23 – 4/28/23

Transportation needed: Car needed

Website: carolinameadows.org/

Organization description: Carolina Meadows' mission is to provide housing, health and wellness services and social opportunities for older adults in a financially secure community that respects individual dignity, encourages independence and promotes life-long learning.

Internship details: The Music and Memory program at Carolina Meadows continuing care retirement community helps older adults with a wide range of cognitive & physical conditions to engage, ease pain, and recollect long-term memories through the offering and use of personalized music. The intern will grow and support the Music and Memory program by working one-on-one with residents in skilled nursing, memory care, assisted living, and independent living. The intern will interview residents (and sometimes their family members or staff) to learn about residents' music preferences, develop a personalized playlist for each resident, and program headsets and other music devices. The intern will actively support residents in using their devices and listen to music with them. Based on the intern's interests and skills, they may also offer a music lesson or concert, work to promote the program among residents and staff, and/or recruit student volunteers to support the program. The intern may need to adapt to a virtual platform, if deemed necessary by health protocols at Carolina Meadows.

Relevant coursework and skills: Music, Psychology, Neuroscience, Social Work, Sociology, Public Relations, Human Development and Families. The student's interest in and comfort with working with older adults and their enjoyment of music are more important than the major. An in-person interview is required. If selected, a background check, proof of COVID and flu vaccinations, TB test, and orientation are required to be cleared to begin work.

Charles House Association – Programming Intern Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Number of intern positions: 1

Dates (to be confirmed once intern is selected): 1/15/23 – 4/15/23

Transportation: Car needed

Website: charleshouse.org/

Organization description: Charles House Association operates the Charles House Center for Community Eldercare to provide quality, personalized care to elders and respite for their caregiving families. They work to enrich senior’s lives through a day facility with activities and support and an eldercare facility.

Internship details: The intern will gain valuable leadership and interpersonal skills while working hands on with older adults. The intern will be learning and working in both the adult day center (serving up to 40 people daily) and the eldercare home (with six residents), but with primary focus in the day center, unless there is a specific interest to do otherwise. Responsibilities in that context will be related to training and functioning as a Charles House program team member, learning how to effectively contribute to the implementation of a stimulating social group program for older adults. We will also do site visits in the community at sites of the intern's choosing as well as three separate projects:

1. Life Stories
2. Participant or Resident Assessment
3. Directing a topical program.

These can be tailored to the intern's goals and interests.

Relevant coursework and skills: As long as there is an interest in working with older adults and those living with dementia, there is no required or preferred major. The intern must be willing to learn and be adaptable.

Child Care Services Association – Communications Intern Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Number of intern positions: 1

Dates (to be confirmed once intern is selected): 1/09/23 – 4/28/23

Number of intern positions: 1

Dates (to be confirmed once intern is selected): 1/10/23 – 5/1/23

Transportation: Car needed

Website: www.orangehabitat.org/

Organization description: Habitat for Humanity partners with families to create better, healthier, more financially stable lives. With our help, Habitat homeowners achieve the strength, stability, and independence they need to build a better future for themselves and their families. Through the use of volunteer labor and donations of money and materials, Habitat builds homes for families in need. Homes are sold with zero percent interest mortgages. Homeowners make monthly payments, which are set at 30% or less of their income, making homeownership an affordable reality. In addition to building new homes, Habitat also partners with families who live in non-Habitat homes to assist them in making repairs to their homes, such as exterior painting, siding repairs, or cleaning, repairing, or installing ramps and handrails, etc. By offering repairs as well as new construction, Habitat ensures the most cost-efficient means of providing affordable and safe homes. Habitat for Humanity is a private nonprofit organization that is funded through the generosity of local individuals, businesses, faith organizations, and foundations. Since 1984, Habitat for Humanity of Orange County has served over 260 families.

Internship details: The Community Engagement Intern will work with the Homeowner Services Department to support and implement Habitat’s neighborhood engagement initiatives. The intern will work closely with Habitat homeowners, community leaders, and organizations to address community-identified concerns, goals and aspirations and improve the lives of the people who live in neighborhoods Habitat is connected to across Orange County. Primary responsibilities for this role may include but are not limited to: researching engagement strategies, creating homeowner newsletters, developing community workshops, co-hosting neighborhood meetings, and developing community partnerships.

Relevant coursework and skills: No specific majors required. Experience in communications, community development, or program evaluation a plus. Requires an ability to get to Chapel Hill office and Habitat communities around Orange County periodically.
